

THE Reluctant
DRAGON STORY
PAINTING BY Robert
E. SMITH

THIS STORY Painting
The Reluctant Dragon was done by me an artist named Robert
E. SMITH.

However THIS MUSICAL
Halloween Play was DIRECTed By John
Prescott. The Scenery
IS IN the AUDITorium
at Carrington Hall
at Southwest MISSOURI UNIVERSITY

(Page 1 cont)

There were not Too many People in the Seats in the AUDITORIUM. You might Say They were Just watching Play Practise- The AUDITORIUM Seats were a Variety of Colors. A Man wearing Red Hat and Black and orange SHIRT and Blue Pants was Straddled in a Seat GLORIA Peabody WHO wore a Red Dress Sat on The edge of a seat. Barbara Dinwiddie WHO Had Blonde Hair and wore an orange and green Vest [redacted] and Red SKIRT Just Stood and looked around.

(Cont)

Page 3 | TWO men STood in the AISLE and looked around. one Man Had Blonde Hair Wore a White SHIRT, Red Vest and green Pants, HIS name was TIMOTHY HIGGINBathan. The other Man Wore a Red Hat and Blue SUIT HIS name was Harold DOOLITTLE. SOme Pumpkins Jack-O-lanterns Sat on a green Platform By the STage. in SOme GREEN Plants Pot in Flower pots By the STage. There were Blue curtains Hangers from the ceiling Covering the Stage SOme Pink Curtains were on The back wall of The STage and on The SIDE. There was a Red Curtain at The Bottom of the STage Facing The AUDITORIUM

(CONT)

On The STage
The Performers Were
Dressed in Their Costumes,
The Dragon Had the Head of a Human.
There was a Small
BUILDING on The STage.
AND TWO other STRUCTURE Stood around. Some LIGHTS Hung down
from The Ceiling
There was MUSIC DURING
The Play But RIGHT now
since I dont Have The music available, I will Have TO. Hum a little of
The Song Puff THE Magic DRAGON
(Cont)

Page 5

I also Dont Have The names of The characters IN Costume IN The Play now SO I will Have TO Tape That later.